Developing a Coding Culture in the Primary Classroom

Why attend?

The introduction of computing to the primary classroom has presented schools with many opportunities and challenges. This course is aimed at eliminating any anxiety over programming and provides practical and accessible ways for teachers to develop the coding skills of our youngest learners.

What will it cover

The session includes:

- Structured suggestions for lessons
- Use of Scratch and Bee Bots
- An understanding of Ofsted's latest outstanding criteria
- Strategies for embedding coding in other areas of the curriculum
- Creative coding ideas
- Ideas to engage all learners
- Techniques to embed new technologies

Cost	£125 + VAT per participant OR Band 1 allocation for Alliance Members per session. Includes all resources, refreshments and lunch.
Venue	Brooke Weston Teaching School, Corby, Northants NN18 8LA
Time	09:30 – 15:30
