

Doing Extremely Well in AQA A Level Psychology

This two day course teaches the skills and techniques for gaining top answers in A level Psychology exams. Designed by a senior examiner using experience of what students do wrong to explain how to get it right. Each of the sessions will begin with a brief marking exercise before looking at the specific skills that can make the difference between gaining D and A grades.

Aims:

- Understand what a top band answer looks like
- Develop an understanding of how to embed research methods and mathematical skills through practical work
- Understand skills required for effective student revision

Outcomes

- Ability to match answers to the appropriate level
- Competence at research methods and practical skills
- Knowledge of what students need to succeed
