

Teachers of the Future

Who would benefit from this course:

Teaching is an exciting and rewarding career and there are an increasing ranges of routes into the profession. It can be difficult to decide which route would be best for you. This three day programme will provide you with the information you need to make that decision, a chance to talk to newly qualified teachers and the opportunity to experience a variety of different school settings. The three day programme aimed at year 12 students will be delivered across the Alliance schools.

What will it cover?

- The routes into teaching
- The process of becoming a teacher
- Talk with Newly Qualified Teachers
- Opportunities for progression within teaching
- School structures
- Lesson observations
- Safeguarding
