

Safer Recruitment

Gain the safeguarding skills you need in order to better protect children whilst recruiting teaching and non-teaching staff to roles within an educational setting.

Learning Outcomes:

- further knowledge/understanding of how 'Safer Recruitment' fits in with wider context of keeping children safe
- further awareness and understanding of offender behaviour
- ability to identify key features of the staff recruitment process that could help to prevent/deter the appointment of unsuitable people
- further understanding of the importance of policy/practice
- further understanding of the importance of making right decisions to minimise the opportunity for abuse and to ensure prompt reporting
- further understanding of the importance of promoting an ongoing culture of vigilance, including a need to review your own policies/practice

Please note: The abuse of children is a sensitive subject. Please be aware that the workshop material could generate difficult feelings for some delegates.
